REHEARSAL SUMMARY

As we gathered for rehearsal tonight, there was a Tornado Warning until 8:00pm that got reissued until 8:30pm. As a safety precaution, we moved to the basement of WQED until the warning was over at 8:30pm. There were no additional warnings issued for the rest of the night. Additionally, as we're hoping to keep the performers voices from being too strained, we did not do a run tonight. While Tonya was here, we cleaned the fight with both casts at the top of rehearsal and then did notes with Nic and then got on our feet and worked on trouble moments in the show.
